21 And Invincible

Something Corporate

Some days go by, I wish I was famous
Or maybe religious, so I could go to heaven
Just like you

I can have a big house, complain about taxes

And pay off my ex'es, ain't that living

No one makes fun of me, cause I can't stand up for myselfWoah, 21 and invincible

Woah, can't wait to screw this up

And woah, 21 and invincible

I'm in power for the hour

Guess today's gonna blow us awayI've got a girlfriend

She tells me she needs me

And she loves me

We'll probably get married

Oh no, and everyone will bit their tongues so hard they'll bleedWhen mom hears this song

She'll tell me I'm crazy

And she'll say to me,

"Son you're much too young, go have some fun, don't waste your youth like I did"And woah, 21 and invincible

Woah, can't wait to screw this up

And woah, 21 and invincible

I'm in power for the hour

I guess today's gonna blow us awayAnd it's been autumn since the day that I met you

If I had bottomed, I'd crawl out alone

And I don't wish you know the secrets of summer at all And woah, 21 and invincible

Woah, can't wait to screw this up

And woah, 21 and invincible

I'm in power for the hour

I guess today's gonna blow us away
