Ten Cent Wings

Jonatha Brooke

If I knew what I was after
I'd remember where I'd been
If I was sure of something better
I'd go, I'd goBut I am just another picture
And I watch myself like you
I imagine what you're thinking
I know, I knowTen cent wings, I'll take two
Pin them to my sweater and I'll sail above the blue
Ten cent wings, tried and true
Orbiting like satellites I'll sail away with you, youI will love across the borders
I will wait until it's dark
And I will fly and you'll be with me
My wings, your heartThen our memory may fail us
And our language will go too
[Incomprehensible]
[Incomprehensible]Ten cent wings, I'll take two
Pin them to my sweater and I'll sail above the blue
Ten cent wings, tried and true
Orbiting like satellites I'll sail away with you, youBut I'll never tell, I'll never say
I'll never be that braveTen cent wings, I'll take two
Pin them to my sweater and I'll sail above the blue
Ten cent wings, tried and true
Orbiting like satellites I'll sail away with youTen cent wings, I'll take two
Pin them to my sweater and I'll sail above the blue
Ten cent wings, tried and true
In another life you are with me, and I'm with you
