

Lucky You

Deftones

They'll come soon
Keep waiting, I'll wait
Some save me If you're feeling lucky
Come and take me home
And if you feel loved If you feel lucky, if you feel loved
If you feel lucky, if you feel loved Crossed the walls, excelled
Further along through their Hell
Hold my heart, watch you kill
Always have, you always will Spread your wings and sail out to me
Spread your wings and sail out to me So if you're feeling lucky
Come and take me home Come and take me home
Come and take me home Come and take me home
Come and take me home, if you feel lucky Crossed the walls, excelled
Further along through their Hell
For my heart, I watch you kill
You always have, you always will Spread your wings and sail out to me
Spread your wings and sail out to me
Spread your wings and sail out to me
Spread your wings and sail out to me
