

Same Old Story (Same Old Song)

B.B. King

Same old story, same old song
Goes all right till it goes all wrong
Now you're going, then you're gone
Same old story, same old song One hand will take, one hand will give That's all we know and that's how we live
One day hello, next day goodbye
And everyone just stays high Same old story, same old song
Goes all right till it goes all wrong
Now you're going, then you're gone
Same old story, same old song One builds you up, one tears you down
To some you're a saint, to others you're a clown
What can you do, just see it through
And hold on to what is left with you Same old story, same old song
Goes all right till it goes all wrong
Now you're going, then you're gone
Same old story, same old song Same old story, same old song
Goes all right till it goes all wrong
Now you're going, then you're gone
Same old story, same old song Same old story, same old song
Goes all right till it goes all wrong
Now you're going, then you're gone
Same old story, same old song Same old story, same old song
Goes all right till it goes all wrong
Now you're going, then you're gone
Same old story, same old song Same old story, same old song
Goes all right till it goes all wrong
Now you're going, then you're gone
Same old story, same old song
