

Back To Me

Nine Days

If you would just come back to me
I would be so good
Put your trust back in me
The least I think you shouldWe'll call it my pathology
So I misunderstood
A bit selfish I should be
If I could change I would
See it on my faceAll I wanted was a friend
To look in me to comprehend
All I wanted was to fly
Could you sit and watch me dieAll I wanted was you there
Your cruelty was my despair
You just killed me so the story goesOnce upon a time, there was a girl
Who loved me more than life itself
By the duck pond, she said
Carved our names into the bark
We climbed the tree I slipped and fell behind
Now I'm sorryIf you would just come back to me
I would be so good
Put your trust back in me
The least I think you shouldWe'll call it my pathology
So I misunderstood
A bit selfish I should be
If I could change I would
See it on my face
See it on my faceAll reminds me of your name
We sought fortune through the rain
Every day and every place
Everywhere I kissed your faceAll the sacrifice in vain
How could you put all the blame upon me
That's not fair, so the story goesOnce upon a time we had the moon
We had the stars, we were divine
Upon my shoulder, she cried
Now she hides the faith, she fears
She throws herself before her bed of lies
She'll be sorryIf you would just come back to me
I would be so good
Put your trust back in me
The least I think you shouldWe'll call it my pathology

So I misunderstood
A bit selfish I should be
If I could change I would
See it on my face If you would just come back to me
I would be so good
Put your trust back in me
The least I think you should We'll call it my pathology
So I misunderstood
A bit selfish I should be
If I could change I would If you would just come back to me
If you would just come back to me, oh
If you would just come back to me
I see it on my face
It's alright
It's alright
It's alright

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>