

Love Him

Donna Lewis

You are the cool earth
You are the city lights
You are the jewel
Forever in my sight And you with the strong heart
You with the trusting words
You shutting your eyes
Slumber in your soft chair Oh, love him
Ah, love him
Oh, love him
Oh, love him I see you in the mellow sun
In weekday overalls
You with a hint of white
And a wave of gold You walk like blue ice
Tender but tough
You are
My morning glory Oh, love him, you are the sky, my big sky
Oh love him, you are the guy, my big guy
Oh love him, you are the sky, my big sky
Oh love him Two little girls and two guys strummin'
Howie and Louie start playin' the blues
It had to be you
Wonderful you in all of me, baby Ah love him, you are the sky my big sky
Ah love him, you are the guy my big guy
Ah love him, you are the sky my big sky
Ah love him, you are the guy You are the cool earth
(Yeah, yeah)
You are the gentle rain
(Yeah, yeah)
You are the note that remains
You are my big sky You are the cool earth
(Yeah, yeah)
You are the gentle rain
(Yeah, yeah)
You are the note that remains
You are my, you are my
You are my You are the sky
You are the sky
You are the cool, cool earth
You are the gentle rain, teach Ah love him

You are my big sky
My big guy
My big skyBig guy, big sky
My big guy, my big sky
My big guy, my big sky
My big guy, my big sky
