

Wolf & Raven

Sonata Arctica

Grant me a wish, my master
Take heed of me
I have been loyal servant
Heartfelt, humble
Gave up what belongs to me
Gave up my greed
My self-examination
Made me see, to be me
I am now like Judas, done
Ashamed of what I've become
Fear for life I wear as a ring
To bask in your favor, I will kill the king
You say, I am invincible
I cannot die
I know, but anyway
The words, they maim me
Grant me a wish, my master
Compassion, please
I'd like be a human
Maybe one day
I am now like Judas, done
Ashamed of what I've become
Fear of life I wear as a ring
To bask in your favor, I will kill the king
Let me go
Master, I hate you so
How can I sleep my nights
When my whole being cries
I tried to be like everyone
Open my soul
But what I had to give
Resulted loathing
Enchanted by the power
Licked by the grace
One beautiful black flower
The end of the human race
I will with pride now face my faith
King and Queen now lie in state
This fear of life I wear as a ring

I bask in your favor, I have killed the king

Let me go

Master, I hate you so

How can I sleep my nights

When my whole being cries

I had a nightmare

The wolf eating the raven

Entrails of life on my plate

And I ate 'em

Interested in what I see

Try that Rorschach test on me

Have you seen the beauty of the

Enticing beast

Let me go

Master, I hate you so

I cannot sleep my nights

When my whole being cries

Let me go

Master, I hate you so

I cannot sleep my nights

When my whole being cries
