

Alright with Me

Kris Allen

I'm a little pawn still in your game
And you ignore my advances
I turn my head and I look away
But I can't control my eyes around you You're on the run and I'm chasing you
Feels like war with all your glances
I'm just a boy without a clue
And you can't control following you But it's alright, alright with me
It's alright, alright with me
It's alright, alright with me
It's alright, alright with me I know you better than you know
You can fight but it's not over
I say to stop but you start to go
I guess that means it's L-O-V-E. I say to look, you turn away
I say we put our best foot forward
Will you believe, come next to me
Oh, why can't you see, I'm begging you please But it's alright, alright with me
It's alright, alright with me
It's alright, alright with me
It's alright, alright with me Yeah yeah yeah yeah
Yeah yeah yeah yeah I'm knocking on your door, baby, baby, please now
Falling on your floor, baby, baby, please
I keep knocking on your door, baby, baby, please now
Falling on your floor, baby, baby, please But it's alright, alright with me
It's alright, alright with me
It's alright, alright with me
It's alright, alright with me But it's alright, alright with me
It's alright, alright with me
It's alright, alright with me
It's alright, alright with me

Songwriters

King, Joseph / Allen, Kris Published by

Lyrics © Sony/ATV Music Publishing LLC, Universal Music Publishing Group Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>