

Sequoia Throne

Protest The Hero

Did you come here to kill or did you come here to die?
Or did you really think that spaceships would descend from the sky
 Bending light and beaming forth across space-time
To see who's scared in the reflection of the royal Black God
To stand aside a predator like a moving [Incomprehensible]
 They're not the ones who've come to kill us
Come to fill us full of lead and I don't want to hate us
 When they are not the ones who mutilate our animals
I'll travel to the stars, they're not the one's who cause us harm
 We are, we are, we are
 We are still alike, equal blooded
 (I will not be)
 We are still alike, equal blooded
 (I will not be)
Hellbent on heaven, hellbent on heaven
Hellbent on heaven, hellbent on heaven
While our righteous men are stopping corpses, pollution and pain
 We are, we are, we are still alive
 We are, we are, we are still alive
 We are, we are, we are still alive
They're not the ones who cause us harm
 We are, we are
Did you come here to kill, did you come here to die?
 We are still nice and comply
 We are still nice and comply
 And we feel, we feel nothing
Stopping corpses, commotion and pain
Keep moving about a future beyond the moon
To bring about another planet's doom
To discover peaceful life and [Incomprehensible]
 Unless my prayers are answered
 Our end is coming soon

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>