

Oh Glory (demo)

Panic! at the Disco

I can only hope its true enough
That every little thing I do for love
Redeems me from the moments I deem worthy of the worst things that i've done
It saves me from myself in times of envy when I'm missing everyoneIf I wake in the morning
I only need two more miracles to be a saint
Everything I promised everyone I'd be
Well I just ain't (ain't, ain't, ain't)Lately it seems like,
Everybody's sick, everybody's died (everybody's died)
Build myself a wall of unhappy hearts
And only my heart knows that my head is lying, lying
Oh glory, I think I see you round the bend
And I think I'd try any pose, get there in the end
Oh GloryWhen I'm looking past the silken sheets
Take a breathe to notice I'm between
Every little piece of thread and memories
That constitute your dreamsIf I wake in the morning
I only need two more miracles to be a saint
Everything I promised everyone I'd be
Well I just ain't (ain't, ain't, ain't)Lately it seems like,
Everybody's sick, everybody's died (everybody's died)
Build myself a wall of unhappy hearts
And only my heart knows that my head is lying, lying
Oh glory, I think I see you round the bend
And I think I'd try any pose, get there in the end
Oh GloryOh glory, I think I see you round the bend
And I think id try any poison, get there in the end
Oh glory, I think I see you round the bend
And I think id try any poison, get there in the endLately it seems like,
Everybody's sick, everybody's died (everybody's died)
Build myself a wall of unhappy hearts
And only my heart knows that my head is lying, lying
Oh glory, I think I see you round the bend
And I think I'd try any pose, get there in the end
Oh GloryOh glory, I think I see you round the bend
And I think id try any poison, get there in the end
Oh Glory, Oh Glory, Oh Glory
