

Maybe

Dave Mason

Maybe I can love you, maybe be your friend
maybe I can help you; your troubles to mend,
maybe sing a song for you, that's what I know best to do.
Anything you want me to, I'll be.
Anything you want me to, I'll be. Maybe we'll be strangers till our dying day, maybe then we'll understand what we had to say,
maybe when we've closed the doors on all that's negative in thought;
Any way you want it, it can be.
Any way you want it, it can be. Lift your head now, tears you've shed are all ignored
take a hand and make a stand against all wars
are you dreaming or just scheming for reward?
Life's illusions are misleading, it's so good to be here breathing... Any way you want it, it can be.
Any way you want it, it can be. Lift your head now, tears you've shed are all ignored
take a hand and make a stand against all wars
are you dreaming or just scheming for reward?
Life's illusions are misleading, it's so good to be here breathing... Maybe I can love you, maybe be your friend
maybe I can help you; your troubles to mend,
maybe sing a song for you, that's what I know best to do.
Anything you want me to, I'll be.
Anything you want me to, I'll be.
