

In This Whole Wide World

The Four Freshmen

In this whole wide world,
Is there no one to love me.
In this whole wide world,
Is there no one to care. Will I ever find,
One who'll give me the peace of mind
Who's affection will never wear
Who will always be fair In this whole wide world,
Is there no one to hold me.
Is there no one girl,
Who will always be there. And when all is done,
Will I be her only one.
In this whole wide world.
