

That's Just The Woman In Me

Celine Dion

If your shoes refuse to shine
And your legs don't walk in line
And tomorrow is just some other time, yeah
That's just the woman in me, babe
That's just the woman in me, baby
That's just the woman working on you

And if your feet can't find the floor
And your key won't fit the door
And you forgot just that two twos are four, yeah
That's just the woman in me, baby
That's just the woman in me, baby
That's just the woman working on you

Oh yeah, now
And I've seen you wandering, baby
Up and down my street, yeah
Trying to explain that
I caused all this pain
To all the people that you meet
Searching for that imperious,

Mysterious femme fatal kind of stuff, yeah
But if you don't know by now
That it's me anyhow
Then baby, you've got it wrong

So if your play gets so confused
And your TV is blowing a fuse
Just come on over you've got nothing to lose

Oh, yeah, yeah, yeah
That's just the woman in me, baby
That's just the woman in me, baby
That's just the woman walking on you
Working on you
Working on you
Working on you

'Cause I need, I need a man to love

Because I need you, I need a man to love
Oh, respect me, protect me, roll over, come over
Run away yeah
Bring me a bunch of flowers, and love
That's the woman in me baby
Working on you
Oh yeah
Working on you
Oh yeah
Working on you
Oh yeah
Working on you
Oh yeah
Oh, oh, oh

---

Lyrics powered by lyrics.tancode.com written by Rew, Kimberley /
Lyrics Â© EMI Music Publishing

Lyrics provided by <https://damnllyrics.com/>