

Between My Legs

Rufus Wainwright

Oh my God You can go out, dancing
And I'll write about you, dancing without you
And I'll shed a tear between my legs When you were here, I missed you
Now that you're away, I'm out there without you
And I shed a tear between my legs Though we live in the same city
You live in another state far away
From me and all of my unfaded charms But when the rocket ships all fall
And the bridges, they all buckle
And everybody's packing up their station wagons There's a number you can call
Like a breast that you can suckle
And we quietly will exit as it all is happening Again, I'm afraid of one thing
Will I walk away from love knowing nothing
Wearing my heart between my legs? But when I know you're naked
Lying on the bed while I'm at the piano
All I can say is I can't fake it When the rocket ships all fall
And the bridges, they all buckle
And everybody's packing up their station wagons There's a number you can call
Like a breast that you can suckle
And we quietly will exit as it all is happening again 'Cause there's a river running underground
Underneath the town towards the sea
That only I know all about
On which from this city we can flee There is a river running underground
Underneath the town towards the sea
That only I know all about
On which from this city we can flee
(On which from this city we can flee) We can flee
