Ruins

Unanimated

ruins among laughing dreams... so real knowledge of a wind so old... whispers through the dark the taste of haunted words... comes forth and pleasures a night so violent... and pure insanestatues of stone wandering wandering among the ruins... among usa wind through a solitude so dark it sleeps in a path of anguish blood thorns of steel cries in a fire of greed of pain it leaves the day, and takes away rivers of stone, deserts among... mestatues of of stone wandering wandering among the ruins... among me
