

Life Ain't Enough For You

The Legendary Tiger Man

You say I ain't got what you
Need to be by your side
But you knew that I was no good,
And you're familiar with my kind
You say guy's line up all around the block
Just to take a look at what I got
You know that might be true,
But when the day is through
All I see is an empty spot
I say life ain't enough for you
You say baby what you're gonna do
Yeah what you gonna do
Yeah I know you're fine,
When it's loving time
But when you're gone I ain't party proof
And the news today
Say you gone away
And there's nothing there's can make you stay
No there's a little time
Just to cuss some wine
Ain't enough for what you wanna do
Last night I got so wasted
Can't leave though you expect me to be too
I say life ain't enough for you
I say baby what you gonna do
Yeah what you gonna do
Baby can't you see
That death will never be
As good as life today
(Baby what you gonna do)
I say life ain't enough for you
You say baby what you gonna do
Yeah what you gonna do
I say life ain't enough for you
You say baby what you gonna do
Yeah what you gonna do
