Say Goodbye

Eva Cassidy

It's funny how the distance can make you feel close
And the things you lost are the things you want most
The weather's fine here, perfect shade of blue
I guess that's why I've been thinking of you
So I call you up just to tell you why
Why I left you and say goodbye
Ooh, must be the mood I'm in
I'm thinking of you again
I call you up just to tell you why
Why I left you and say goodbye
I know you're different now and I guess I changed too
And I thought what was once so right was so wrong for you
Yesterday I was talking and I heard your name
The weather's fine here with a slight chance of rain
So I call you up just to tell you why
Why I left you and say goodbye
Ooh, must be the mood I'm in

I'm thinking of you again
I call you up just to tell you why
Why I left you and say goodbye
Time makes you sorry for the things that you've done
Sometimes you walk away and sometimes you run
And the weather's fine here, I can feel a slight chill
Somethings change, babe and some never will
So I call you up just to tell you why
Why I left you and say goodbye
Ooh, must be the mood I'm in
I'm thinking of you again
I call you up just to tell you why
Why I left you and say goodbye
I call you up just to tell you why
To say I love you and to say goodbye
