Bump and Grind

R. Kelly

Even with a one-track mind
In the land of bump and grind
Stay the night
In the land of bump and grind
The weight on your shoulders
About to bring you to your knees
You're two minutes older
Looks more like a lifetime to me
Got to get moving
Time for you to lose and load
There's nothing to it
Just gotta learn to let go
You've gotta lose all control
Even with a one-track mind
You'll go blind
In the land of bump and grind
Stay the night
Cross the line
In the land of bump and grind
Even with a one-track mind
You'll go blind
In the land of bump and grind
Stay the night
Cross the line
In the land of bump and grind
Even with a one-track mind
You're down in the hole again
Somebody comes on jumping down
Don't call him crazy
He's been there and he knows the way out
Beautiful strangers
Ain't got time to take it slow

Just head for danger
That's where we all need to go
We've gotta lose all control
Even with a one-track mind
You'll go blind
In the land of bump and grind

Stay the night
Cross the line
In the land of bump and grind
Even with a one-track mind
You'll go blind
In the land of bump and grind
Stay the night
Yeah I know what you're looking for
'Cause the world's looking too
We all really want the same
Yeah I know what you're dreaming of
And I like it like it like it like it like it like it like it
Even with a one-track mind
Stay the night
Even with a one-track mind
You'll go blind
Stay the night
