

Little Hitler

Everything But the Girl

Little Hitler, don't come 'round here again
With your renegade politics, redder than thou disdain
Thought we were on the same side
But with a fistful of nails and your knives from the Clyde You're a little Hitler now
And you'll grow up, heaven knows how
You're a little Hitler now
And you'll grow up, heaven knows how Little Hitlers, little Hitlers
Grow up into big Hitlers
Look what they do Little Hitlers, little Hitlers
Grow up into big Hitlers
Look what they do Behind ever big man there's a small boy
Drink to Stalin and Hitler and Jimmy Boyle
Hard men get all the catches, every woman loves a fascist
Come the big day, you'll be okay You're a little Hitler now
And you'll grow up, heaven knows how
You're a little Hitler now
And you'll grow up, heaven knows how Little Hitlers, little Hitlers
Grow up into big Hitlers
Look what they do Little Hitlers, little Hitlers
Grow up into big Hitlers
Look what they do You try to scare me with stories of knives
Backstreet's and razors and alley-cat's cries
And if you're heartless and hard
Well, this has made you what you are
This has made you what you are You're a little Hitler now
And you'll grow up, heaven knows how
You're a little Hitler now
And you'll grow up, heaven knows how Little Hitlers, little Hitlers
Grow up into big Hitlers
Look what they do Little Hitlers, little Hitlers
Grow up into big Hitlers
Look what they do Little Hitlers, little Hitlers
Grow up into big Hitlers
Look what they do Little Hitlers, little Hitlers
Grow up into big Hitlers
Look what they do
Look what they do
