Crocodile Shoes

Mats RÃ¥dberg

Wine, beer and spirits all the time
Though I have you, still she's always on my mind
The rain falls down, I'm soaking through
I'm an old man inside a young man's suitMy crocodile shoes are crying too
For they know how much love I have for youCrocodile shoes, crocodile shoes
Crocodile shoes, crocodile shoesWine, beer and spirits take me down
The lights are low and there's no one else around
The waitress sure looks pretty and that's a bad sign
I smile at her, still you're always on my mindWith your crocodile shoes, crocodile shoes
Crocodile shoes, crocodile shoesI've lost so much in a short time
Don't see my kids, how I miss my wife
I let the world slip through my hands
And now I'm talking to the only friends I haveCrocodile shoes, crocodile shoes
Crocodile shoes, crocodile shoesThey're crying too, they're crying too
Crocodile shoes
They're crying too, they're crying too
Crocodile shoes
