

How Many Times?

Harold Arlen & The Buffalodians

Love leave me alone
I've got troubles of my own
I do believe that I have paid the price
For all the things I've said and done
Every little thing that seemed to go wrong
How many times
Will I regret the chances taken?
And why do I end up
Always the one who is mistaken?
Love leave me to sleep
Let me wallow in my dreams
See the icy past fade away
The dawning of a brand new day
The echoes of the past that still remind me
How many times
Will I regret the chances taken?
And why do I end up
Always the one who is mistaken?
How many times
Will I regret the chances taken?
And why do I end up
Always the one who is mistaken?
How many times
Will I regret the chances taken?
And why do I end up
Always the one who is mistaken?
