

Openhearted

Real Life

Don't walk out openhearted
Dream on in silent night
Don't wake up unguarded
In love hold on tight
Unfolding your life
So young golden teens
You only have time for love
Or so it seems Sad day she stays openhearted
She plays she stays openhearted Sleep on stranger in your arms
Unfolding night have no fear
From me tonight Crash landing your heart
So loud no one hears
You crying no sound
Let go a thousand tears
