Look At Me Now

Dakota Moon

Tell me who you see
When you look in my eyes
Yeah, it's really me
That you don't recognizeI almost believed you and gave up
When you wrote me off
You almost succeeded completely
Till somehow I rescued the faith that I lostWhatcha gonna say, whatcha gonna do
How you gonna get me to me now
Never understood, no you never could
Never really knew me no howYou kicked on me when I was down
It's funny how things come around
'Cause look at me now
'Cause look at me nowHey it's only money
And the trappings of fame
But now all of a sudden
You remember my nameYou're doing you best to convince me that it's only words
But I'll never forget how you hurt me
And now that finally the tables have turnedWhatcha gonna say, whatcha gonna do
How you gonna get me to me now
Never understood, no you never could
Never really knew me no howYou kicked on me when I was down
It's funny how things come around
'Cause look at me now
Look at me nowNever thought I could
Never thought I wouldYou thought I was beat to the ground
It's funny how things have turned out
Everything's all turned around
