

Midnight Room

Springtime Carnivore

I build my world around you
We were standing in the sun
'Til there was nowhere left to hide
Inside your loveIn my midnight room, I never stop
In my midnight room, I never stop
I never stop dreaming of youMy heart beat became a stone
On the night I left
I wonder as I wake up alone
Has it hit the bottom yet?
In my midnight room, I never stop
In my midnight room, I never stop
I never stop dreaming of youI see you now
Blue on blue, my illusion
I slow it down
Hear your voice in the ruin
I see you now
Blue on blue, my illusion
I slow it down
Until you're almost standing
In my midnight room, I never stop
In my midnight room, I never stop
I never stop dreaming of youDreaming of you
Dreaming of you
Dreaming of you
