Killing Tool

Cataract

Bright headlines used as a calming injection
In the mirror of lies I see the reflection
Of buried thoughts and stolen freedom
The absorbed struggle of the human raceThis killing tool in this reign of controlAll the miseries of this rotten life
In blood their baptized with poisoned words
Truth once so pure has been deleted
And all curse of history has been neglectedThis killing tool in this reign of controlVictims become the worst enemies
Their Lords and kings are now the weak
The power of today's mass media have
An destructive impact on our modern societyManipulated headlines are being used
As deadly weapons in warfare and propaganda
Is one of the leading forces of this war machineryThe abuse of mass media to manipulate the opinions
Of millions of people is growing dramatic and is well accepted
As a part of this system of this failed system
