Sundrops

Inverse Cinematics

You can't get any more sunshine
I can't get over how it rains down
Oh, no no no
You can't get any more sunshine
You can't get any more broken down
Oh, no no noIs the car parked downtown?
Leave it while the sun beats down
We can walk and walk and walk
Walk and walk and walkYou can't get any more skinshow
You can't get anything in your eyes
Oh, no no no
You can't get any more sunshine
Barefoot while the heat rains down
Oh, no no noIs the car parked downtown?
Leave it while the sun beats down
We can walk and walk and walk
Walk and walk and walkThere's nothing I forgot
I left that paper heart
Where it belonged, who it belonged to
I never knew, I never, never knewPaper burns and my heart melts
When I tear at youSun drops down, sun drops down, sun drops down now
Down now, now, now, now
Down now, now, now, now
Down now, now, now, nowSun drops down now, sun drops down now, sun drops down now
Down now, now, now, now
Down now, now, now, now
Down now, now, now, now
