

Lily Two

Matt Pond PA

Who knows whats right?
Lily, you dont have to
When you see the moon
You trust its lightThe crickets sing loud
Lily, you can hear it
In their voices
How youve made them proudAt the top of your voice
There's no doing wrong, I swear
Lily, you be just who you areAt the top of your voice
There's no doing wrong, I swear
Lily, you be just who you areDont keep appointments
With disappointment
Hiding in a hiding place
You dont have to look away
Mississippi brings new water every dayLook at the sun
How it glows in a million waves
Lily, there are just as many waysAt the top of your voice
There's no doing wrong, I swear
Lily, you be just who you areSouthern sky
Lily, youre connected
To the stars
And to the world tonightThe night is fair
Lily, it can promise
That the next day therell be
So much there
