

Lost (12" Inch version)

Rotersand

you know me, you trust me, you love me, it's all in your eyes you stir me, you tempt me, you want me to drown in your sighs but you're a liar, a liar you're just a liar, a liar you fool me, you scorn me, you flout me, you're rolling the dice you trick me, you knock me, you jilt me like just a device cause you're a liar, a liar you're just a liar, a liar love is lost, lost in all those moments cruelly denied with everytime you lied love is lost, it's just a dying romance it was never meant ever to survive love is lost, a dream is left to perish a tale that burns in the light of truth love is lost, the love we used to cherish love is lost, a kingdom gone for good
