

Everything Your Heart Desires

Incognito

Out in Rio, we strolled the Ipanema
And headed for the samba
How could we know, just what would come at sunset?
The day we'll never forget With Sugarloaf in the distance fading
We held the night, and it felt so right
No greater feeling have I known
Than to watch the sunrise in your eyes
Sweet love Now, I got this feeling, it's undenying
Gonna give you everything your heart desires
Yes, I got this feeling, making me feel so good
Gonna give you everything your heart desires Come with me now, let's take a flight to Mexico
Something there I want to show you
Let's take our wings like butterflies
Together we can touch the skies
Like Frida and Diego Through the deserts and the harsh lands, baby
I hold you tight, it feels so right
No greater feeling have I known
Than to watch the sunrise in your eyes
Sweet love
Sweet love Now, I got this feeling, it's undenying
Gonna give you everything your heart desires
Yes, I got this feeling, making me feel so good
Gonna give you everything your heart desires Now, I got this feeling, it's undenying
Gonna give you everything your heart desires
Yes, I got this feeling, making me feel so good
Gonna give you everything your heart desires Now, I got this feeling, it's undenying
Gonna give you everything your heart desires
Yes, I got this feeling, making me feel so good
Gonna give you everything your heart desires Now, I got this feeling, it's undenying
Gonna give you everything your heart desires
Yes, I got this feeling, making me feel so good
Gonna give you everything your heart desires Gonna give you everything you need
Gonna give you everything you got
Everything your heart desires
Gonna give you everything you need
Gonna give you everything you got
Everything your heart desires Now, I got this feeling, it's undenying
Gonna give you everything your heart desires
Yes, I got this feeling, making me feel so good

Gonna give you everything your heart desires
