

The Road to Golgotha

Jeff Goodrich

The road to Golgotha

The road to Golgotha

The road to Golgotha

You'll never know...

You might see, the rocks and the trees.

You might hear, the wind blow there, but the road to Golgotha

The road to Golgotha

The road to Golgotha

You'll never know...

You might say, you watch the waves

You might feel, something there still, but the road to Golgotha

The road to Golgotha

The road to Golgotha

You'll never know...

You might sigh and wonder why, even cry when you see where he died, but the road to Golgotha

The road to Golgotha

The road to Golgotha

You'll never know...

The road to Golgotha

You'll never, really know...
