

Too Easy to Love You

Josh Hoke

When the day is past, and the sun turns black
With your mind transfixed on all you lack
You keep holding on it won't last long
Because things go right after they go wrong Isn't it easy to confuse
The ones you love and the ones you use I tell you why, it's not right; it's too easy to love you now
Why, I can't find, a way back home when you call my name When it all falls down and the sky spins round
With your dancing feet on this shaking ground
You keep falling slow and the mood will lift
In the end you know all the weight will shift
