

The Swan Song

Krohme

Winter has come for me, can't carry on
The chains to my life are strong but soon they'll be gone
I'll spread my wings one more time
Is it a dream?
All the ones I have loved
Calling out my name
The sun warms my face
All the days of my life
I see them passing me by
In my heart I know I can let go
In the end I will find some peace inside
New wings are growing tonight
Is it a dream?
All the ones I have loved

Calling out my name
The sun warms my face
All the days of my life
I see them passing me by
As I am soaring, I'm one with the wind
I am longing to see you again, it's been so long
We will be together again
Is it a dream?
All the ones I have loved
Calling out my name
The sun warms my face
All the days of my life
I see them passing me by
