Let's Do This, Rango!

Yours Truly

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Your confidence hides none of your flaws
Your arrogance shines, showing youre a lost cause
So swallow your pride, let go of it all Youre running behind, just accept the fallOne of these days youll grow up and regret this and one of these days wont be soon
So keep talking about a life youll never live
Cause well never give a damn about youYoure so insecure and its easy to see Youre reflecting your problems right on to me
I dont care at all about who you are in your head
All I know is that youd be better off deadYour knees are weak and youre not seeing straight
Such a waste of time, with no time to waste.One of these days
