

Do You Remember

KIDZ BOP Kids

yeah alright alright alright yeah i been think about you and how we used to be then back when it didn't have to end we can start again theres nothing left to say don't waist another day just you and me tonight everything will be o.k if it's alright with you it's alright with me baby let's take a stand let's make new memories do you remember do you remember all the fun times we had just bring it back bring it back bring it back so long since you been missing it's so great to see you again how you doing and how about we don't let this happen again theres nothing left to say don't waist another day baby let's take a stand let's make new memories do you remember do you remember do you remember all the fun times we had let's bring it back bring it back bring it back that's what i heard that's what i heard tonight theres nothing left to say don't waist another day just you and me tonight everything will be o.k if it's alright with you then it's alright with me baby let's to this town make new memories do you remember do you remember do you remember all the fun times we had so bring it back oh bring it back oh bring it back
