Run

Cavo

I watched you fall to pieces, I let this whole world come undone
How would you know? You left me all surrounding
You left this broken by the sun
Look what you've doneYou see what you want me to see
Just wake what you want from me!
I'm running for my life, I'll run until the end
The only life I know,You kept this all inside you, you kept me blinded by the light
How would you know, the way that pulled you under
The fire inside you won't burn now
Look what you've doneYou see what you want me to see
Just wake what you want from me!
I'm running for my life, I'll run until the end
The only way I'm safe from falling
Leaves me calling
You're running for your life, you'll run until the end
The only life you knowI'll never be what you want me to be
I know that you see me!
Feels like I'm falling apart ...
I know that you see me!
I know that you see me!You see what you want me to see
Just wake what you want from me!
I'm running for my life, I'll run until the end
The only way I'm safe from falling
Leaves me calling
You're running for your life, you'll run until the end
The only life you know
The only life you know.
