Supposed To Be

Tom Odell

I'm not afraid to show emotion
It's what I need to get me through
And I would swim across the ocean
A thousand miles to get to you

Maybe I'm crazy, but I feel
For once in my life
Like the stars in the sky
Have all aligned
I never will deny that you and I

We will
Live forever
Love each other
Try together
How can we deny what feels so right?
We will
Live forever
Love each other
Stay together
Isn't that the way that life's supposed to be?
Supposed to be

I used to think that my obsession
Is just a phase I go through
But now I know without a question
You're the one
I always knew

I know it's crazy, but I feel
For once in my life
Like the stars in the sky
Have all aligned
I never will deny 'cause you and I

We will
Live forever
Love each other
Try together
How can we deny what feels so right?

We will
Live forever
Love each other
Stay together
Isn't that the way that life is supposed to be?

And it feels like
That it couldn't be better
And it feels like
No one else
Could take the place
When you have the answer
I never will deny that you and I

We will
Live forever
Love each other
Try together
How can we deny what feels so right?
We will
Live forever
Love each other
Stay together
How can we deny what feels so right?

We will
Live forever
Love each other
Try together
How can we deny what feels so right?
We will
Live forever
Love each other
Stay together
Isn't that the way that life's supposed to be?
