Teenage Rebel

Chameleon Circuit

I've had so many different faces, so many different personalities
My tastes change, I get cravings, but some things you can't take away from me
You can't stop me dreamingI used to be old, but now I feel young
'Cause I was a boy when I learned how to run
I could never be settled in one time or place
I won't ever stop, 'cause I know what's right
Get in my way I will burst into light
I'll keep dying and living and changing my ways
But I was a teenage rebel and that stayed the sameIt might feel like you're defeated, but I know that we all long to be set free
So overcome your monsters. Rise up, there is just one thing you need Something to believe inI used to be old, but now I feel young
'Cause I was a boy when I learned how to run
I could never be settled in one time or place
I won't ever stop, 'cause I know what's right
Get in my way I will burst into light
I'll keep dying and living and changing my ways
But I was a teenage rebel and that stayed the sameI used to be old, but now I feel young
'Cause I was a boy when I learned how to run
I could never be settled in one time or place
I won't ever stop, 'cause I know what's right
Get in my way I will burst into light
I'll keep dying and living and changing my ways
But I was a teenage rebel and that stayed the same
