

Cry

The Trews

You Cry
You Cry I am leavin
goodbye love
I am waiting for no one Trust my feelin
one the line
nothings savin us this time my hearts tellin me to run I got my mind made up and im movin on i got my mind made up and im movin on ive got my heart reset and my head back on i got my mind made up and im movin on You cry
you cry
you cry
you cry
way to much for me Lost child wantin all you see your in love with not losin me
fallin forward love ain't right if all we ever do is fight nothing should be this hard won I got my mind made up and im movin on
ive got my heart reset and my head back on
you cry
you cry
you cry
you cry
you cry
you cry
you cry
way to much for me
way to much for me
way to much for me
oh yeah Listen up
the time has come for me to say im givin up
i never loved ya anyway gotta fly

any your not gettin in my way this is my independence dayyou cry
you cry
you cry
you cry
you cry
you cry
you cry
way to much for me
you cry way to much for me
bye bye
yeah
oh no
oh yeah
oh
