Lotta Kill

Drunk Injuns

(prob super wrong & missing spots)

A life, and it trades eternity, and art imitating life.
The visions prevent a livelihood,
enrages means to an end.
Dreams of peace in our times,
a quote heard once a year.
You introduced pain to my heart,
But I still remember you...

Guess What!
I can't believe in love for you, you'll cry at my closet of eventually been two years, too much,

---

snake release my money vein
pray on my good wealth

I think i know what you are,
I'll trap your heart to figure it out,
Come to a list and conclusion

You're just here for lotta kill,
I won't love you forever again, no never

The dream your tears are forever
Your smile could end the pain

And you'll say, 'but we can start all over',
'Would you be mine again?'

I think I know what you are
Well I'll trap your heart to figure it out

You're just here for lotta kill.
I won't love you forever again, no never.

Dreams of peace in our time,
a quote heard once a year.

You introduced pain to my heart,
Oh I still remember you.
I think I know what you are.
Well I'll trap your heart to figure it out,

You're just here for lotta kill.
I won't love you forever again, no never, no never, no never.
