

My Love

Corey Cyr

Laying outside and staying up late.
That look in her eyes, boy ain't she great.
My love, shines like the stars above. Pretty little girl, baby can't you see?
You're the greatest thing to happen to me.
My girl, is the greatest thing in the world. Swimming through dreams, writin' songs on the sea.
Being with you babe is what sets me free.
My babe, takes all my pain away. She's shown me love, I'll show her laughter.
We'll show each other, a happy ever after.
Gonna run to the sun, gonna leave the day.
Baby you're the one, hope you don't mind me sayin'
