

Rise Up

Freedom Call

Who wants to live forever
Here in a world of shame
Living under pressure
Hearts are filled with pain It's time, time to break free
Time for a journey through dimensions
A never ending ride
Rays of hope from somewhere
Come from deep inside Over and over I'm lost in bad dreams
And into the void I stare Rise up to Heaven where Eden lies
A lost asylum somewhere beyond
Rise up forever out of the dark
Pain and sorrow left in the past I'll carry on to save my life
I'll ride on the wings of storm
I'm still alive, free inside
My heart and soul reborn Over and over I'm counting my tears
I'm alone with all my fears Rise up to Heaven where Eden lies
A lost asylum somewhere beyond
Rise up forever out of the dark
Pain and sorrow left in the past Over and over I'm lost in bad dreams
And I'm counting all my tears Rise up to Heaven where Eden lies
A lost asylum somewhere beyond
Rise up forever out of the dark
Pain and sorrow left in the past
