

Wolfman Jack

Binary Star

"Hey baby, you're on a subliminal trip to nowhere.

 You better get your trip

 Together before you step

 In here with us!"

Full moon tonight, everything's all right

 Baby come on back to Wolfman Jack

If you want yourself a day man, well I don't mind

 You just ditch him when the sun goes down

 'Cause the moon shines bright

 And everything's all right

 When the Wolfman, he creeps into town

Now you maybe want a man who throws 'round his money

 But he ain't as cool as Wolfman Jack

 And you might want yourself a man

 Who don't act so funny

 But he ain't your fool like Wolfman Jack

 I don't mean to treat you evil

 I'm just a good boy gone bad

But if I catch you after dark walking through the park

 I'm just liable to do something mad

You maybe think you know what love is about girl

 But it's nothing 'til it's Wolfman Jack

And everybody knows, you go round and shout it

 That your only thrill is Wolfman Jack

Full moon tonight, everything's all right

 Baby come on back to Wolfman Jack

I may miss your loving while I'm on my back

 But you can't escape from Wolfman Jack

 You can't do this to me

Look me in the eyes baby, now you cut that jive

 You know the Wolfman's just about

 The number one cat alive

You got my great big eyes spinning 'round in my head

 How could you love another man instead?
