Dancing in a Rainstorm

Ratham Stone

I'm not looking for something new and you were the one who taught me to and it's been raining all my life
I can take more cloudy skies, the rain wont wash the sun from my eyes. no we can always be free.

When it seems, like the devils at my door
And it seems, like I can't take no more
You'll see, I'll be dancing in a rainstorm
I'll be dancing in a rainstorm

Break me down I'll build back up, strong like waved feeling rush, cause I make snow feel so alive
Leave me there on the side of the road, I don't need no directions to get home cause I don't wanna go back

When it seems, like the devils at my door
And it seems, like I can't take no more
You'll see, I'll be dancing in a rainstorm
I'll be dancing in a rainstorm

I wont stop til I've had enough, you wont be there cause you can't keep up and no I don't think it's getting colder
Cause I've been wrong and you've been right lets be straight there's a brighter side that you have yet to find

When it seems, like the devils at my door
And it seems, like I can't take no more
You'll see, I'll be dancing in a rainstorm
I'll be dancing in a rainstorm
