Soak

Boris Hauf

Like the sea you're always pushing for change
All that I can see is a pool of rain
Wish I thought of this much sooner, it felt so right
All the secrets soaked can't put out the flamesAfter all you were right
So beautiful
Held the wrongs from the rights
So beautifulOpen mind, show me your details and more
Believe only what you see, so wrongAfter all you were right
So beautiful
Held the wrongs from the rights
So beautifulAfter all you were right
So beautiful
Held the wrongs from the rights
So beautiful, so beautiful
So beautiful, so beautiful
