

Jekyll and Hyde (feat. Rapture Ruckus)

Jonathan Thulin

I know it's just the human condition
Older than the oldest tradition
One side of me says "stop so you don't blow"
The other side says "what would I stop for"

Opposite as the day and night
As different as the sun and moon is
This is the reality of my duality
This we needs to become a me

Because I'm a fraud, I'm an imposter
I'm a fraud, I'm an imposter
I'm a fraud, I'm an imposter
I'm a fraud 'cause you see there's two of me, two of me
Jekyll, Jekyll, Jekyll, Jekyll and Hyde
That's what my name is
Jekyll, Jekyll, Jekyll, Jekyll and Hyde
That's what my name is
Jekyll, Jekyll, Jekyll, Jekyll and Hyde
That's what my name is
Jekyll, Jekyll, Jekyll, Jekyll and Hyde
That's what my name is

I am conflicted can't let this fate rule
I'm doing stupid things like a fool
All this time I have wasted
It's time for me to face all my faces

So many voices inside of my head
And they're telling me to go
Some are saying take it fast
Some are saying take it slow
Driving a windy road
Bipolar as I can go
I tried to keep it straight
But ended up into a hole
All I ever wanted to be was me
Now I know not who I am
One day I'm Lex Luthor
The next I think I'm Superman

I was walkin'™ on the water
Now Iâ€™™ sinkin'™ in the sand
Dang, I thought I was innocent
But there is blood all on my hands

This we needs to become a me
