Bergerac

Here I sit
The world upon my shoulder
 Think I'd cry without
 A love to keep me warm
 And I'm sure
The faithfulness grows older
 I'm as useful
 As a broken man's reward
 And so I wait
 And never see
 How someone
So desired could fall for me
 Well, it's just one kiss
 And it'll all crash down
 Ignorance is bliss
In this cold and wet town
 If I could bring myself
 To venture through
This bold and bruised door
 Well, I might make it
 Yeah, I might make it
 And so I try
With all upon my shoulder
 With a single glance
 She cuts me to the bone
 And I stand
Regret the things I told her
Because the years can teach
You things days never know
 And so I sit

 And never see
 How someone
So desired could fall for me
 Well, it's just one kiss
 And it'll all crash down
 Ignorance is bliss
In this cold and wet town
 If I could bring myself

To venture through

This bold and bruised door

Well, I might make it

Yeah, I might make it

Yes, I might make it

I don't want to leave

I don't want to stay

But you tear me up

With those insecure ways

I don't want to leave

I don't want to stay

But you tear me up

With those insecure ways

I don't want to leave

I don't want to stay

But you tear me up

With those insecure ways

Insecure ways

Insecure ways
