

Golden Gal

Animal Collective

[ No, Blanche, she's upset because they keep changing the taste of coke. ]Golden Gal on her screen

Some kind of tube she never seen

A gift to the girl ready to dream

Hoping new phones the hell alibis

Spirit is burning to hear it from the girls againSo complex and brave

A power allure with her shoulders and legs

Give her a rose, such a sexual thing

When it got a review, send it to you right away

Am I keeping it new? Oh here it comes again

It's a strange kind of plot, whose steps in pave a golden way

With a humor that is known to really put me in my place

With words so tricky how we know what to say

My guy is so strong, you should hold your head above up

You need not to ask for much to get my praiseGolden Gal on her screen

Some kind of tube she never seen

A gift to the girl ready to dream

Hoping new phones the hell alibis

Spirit is burning to hear it from the girls againLet me dress up like a golden gal and have my golden days

And then watch the markers man from a table side in grace

I can only dream of how I'd be so amazed

The gals were right on we needed laughs to fall on

And for all of this and more I give them praise[ A man? Fly trap. ]You think the gals should feel so comfortable these days

But sex and gender brings some troubles to the fray

And trouble tears apart another golden heart

So I want to be the reminder that she's stronger than the both on other dayGolden Gal

Gave me my strength

She said "I'll be here for you later, boy, now run along you have to fall"

Golden Gal

Gave me my faith

When all it took was some belief

I don't believe that she should change at all

Golden Gal taught me restraint

She said "there won't be more much later, dude,

I'm your everything and now you're torn"

Golden Gal

I'll be beside her and I might want to stand in line to find the kind of mind she can provideYou think the gals should feel so comfortable these days

But sex and gender brings some troubles to the fray

And trouble tears apart another golden heart
So I want to be the reminder that she's stronger than the both on other dayGolden Gal
Gave me my strength
She said "I'll be here for you later, boy, now run along you have to fall"
Golden Gal
Gave me my faith
When all it took was some belief
I don't believe that she should change at all
Golden Gal taught me restraint
She said "there won't be more much later, dude,
I'm your everything and now you're torn"
Golden Gal
I'll be beside her and I might want to stand in line to find the kind of mind she can provideHere for a while I will fall/follow my golden gal.
