Stars Fall From Heaven

The Kelly Family

It's cold outside
And the moon is bright
And I'm all alone tonight
If I was a star
That shined so bright
I'd shine my love to you

It's not the words you say
Neither the way they're said
And it's not the things you do
That make me want to fly
Oh baby

When a star falls from heaven
Don't ask me why
When a star falls from heaven
It just makes me cry

When stars fall from heaven
I don't know why
When stars fall from heaven
Gonna see me cry

It's cold outside
It's dar out here
You're far and I'm alone
The stars shine bright
As the tears roll down
My burning cheeks as I cry

It's not the words you say
Neither the way they're said
And it's not the things you do
That make me want to fly
Oh baby

When stars fall ...
Hey hey hey hey yeah ...
