Strangers

Portishead

Ohh! Can anybody see the light
Where the morn meets the dew and the tide rises?
Did you realize no one can see inside your view?
Did you realize for why this sight belongs to you?
Ohh! Just set aside your fears of life
With the sole desire
Done it warning, done in now
This ain't real on in this side
Done it warning, done in now
This ain't real, on in this side

Done it warning, done in now
This ain't real
Done it warning, done in now
This ain't real, on in this side
Ohh! Can anybody see the light
Where the morn meets the dew and the tide rises?
Did you realize no one can see inside your view?
Did you realize for why this sight belongs to you?
