

Fake Paradise

Dub Fx

I'm walking through this fake paradise a fake paradise
I'm walking through this fake paradise a fake paradise
let me in a bit of room as i jump in here i got to go soon so i make it clear coming up to the final frontier babylon pushing on all that fear so let's get a hold of what we got here everybody gather round cos i got an idea it may be bold to know but it's clear the zombie nation is approaching near I'm walking through this fake paradise a fake paradise walking through this fake paradise a fake paradise as I'm walking through everything that i say and everything i do has got to be real and got to be true so i open up my soul and give it to you with a little bit of vibe that i make for you it's fine the way that we do we got a bass line that will make you move come on it's time that you join our crew i will always hear what you say i will never stand in your way i can always tell if you're wise i can see your soul with my third eye i don't need to hear what they say I'm not in those games that they play i can always see through the lies i can see the world through my third eye sometimes I'm feeling so tempted to let myself be misdirected by all the lies of what them said no... i just listen to my soul I'm walking through this fake paradise a fake paradise
walking through this fake paradise
a fake paradise
i will always hear what you say
i can always tell if your wise
i can see your soul with my third eye
